

Simmer

Swim Deep

Look up at the ceiling
don't you, see that too much and you blow your mind away in a rush

'Cause you've got to be Something you don't know right now
So you can please
Whatever you will try

How does it feel to lie down that much?
does it feel good?
Or can't you stand to lie no more?
You just simmer
Simmer high no more
You just simmer
Simmer high no more

So warm your thoughts up like mulled wine
'Cause you've got time
And throw your thoughts up in the sky
And watch them fly

Do you wanna see what it's like to think out loud
'Cause you'll see your words
When you've left the ground

How does it feel to lie down that much?
does it feel good?
Or can't you stand to lie no more?
You just simmer
Simmer high no more
You just simmer
Simmer high no more
