

I wanna tell you something
I wouldn't say
I wanna tell you something I won't break
So take a right girl cause there's nothing left
Stick around with someone else
And tell each other something that you don't mean
Like I wanna be on TV and in magazines
Drive up to beaches in limousines

I won't be held together
Can't be home forever
I wanna tell the world that I've seen it
Wake up and see what I've been dreaming
I won't be held together
Won't be home forever

Get me out this town but I don't wanna leave my friends behind
They're coming with me and tell me what I've done to feel this lucky, girl
Cause time stopped and I got away, nothing changes if we stay
Die old and lead yourself astray, just say
You're soul tripping, you're soul, soul trippin' with me
You're soul tripping, you're soul, soul trippin' with me
And when this is over I'll soul trip in my head
And when I get older I'll soul trip in bed

Get some sand in your feet and feel the heat
Get some wind in your hair some stories to share

Tell me what I've done to feel this lucky
Cause time stopped and I got away
Nothing changes if we stay
Die old and lead yourself astray, just say

You're soul tripping, you're soul, soul trippin' with me
You're soul tripping, you're soul, soul trippin' with me

And when this is over I'll soul trip in my head
And when I get older I'll soul trip in bed
