

Alone

Swing Out Sister

Alone
You hide behind a smile
So no one sees the tears you cry
Just stop and think a while
Are you just living out a lie

The smile upon your face
A smile that only lasts until you turn around
And when you fall from grace
Suddenly you'll find that you lost the friends you found

Keep your emotions in captivity
Hide in the shadows but long to be free
Wishing and hoping the sooner you see
You'll never be happy
Until you can be alone again
Alone again
Alone again
Alone again

Alone again
Alone again
Alone again
