

Tomorrow
Will we all just fade away
And will the sun explode
Destroying everything

Tomorrow
Will we all just fade away
And will the sun explode
Destroying everything

We are lines too little
Fading fast away
Too little we all shine
We will find a way

We are lines, we are lines
Fading fast away, fading fast away

What happens
Will we all just fade away
And will the sun explode
Destroying everything

What happens
Will we all just fade away
And will the sun explode
Destroying everything
