Yeah Break my frustration Crack the walls that hold me inside Never seen the light go shining through Never seemed to like the likes of you Are you happy now You broke me on the inside The inside of my soul The inside of my soul Should I act now You break me on the inside The inside of my soul The inside of my soul Is it just lack of respect These things you do to me Jealousy is all I see But you complicate things Manipulate me But there's nothing left to believe Are you happy now You broke me on the inside The inside of my soul The inside of my soul Should I act now You break me on the inside The inside of my soul The inside of my soul I swear words keep on speaking Secrets that your keeping Tongue tied too tied to part of you Are you happy now You broke me on the inside The inside of my soul The inside of my soul Should I act now You break me on the inside The inside of my soul The inside of my soul You sick why can't you just leave me alone

The inside of my.. The inside of soul
