

Who Feels

Switched

You know the reason why
You stay awake, can't sleep at night.
Cannot accept you haunt yourself
You left the window open wide
And when the sunlight hits your face
Does it show all the pain you've kept inside
When did you lose your faith?
When did you stop believing?

How could you run from me?
How could you stop believing that I don't know you?

When you're lost, all alone, so confused and scared.
You're not the only one who ever feels like that.
Who ever feels like that.

I can't imagine why, it's self-inflicted, don't deny.
I can't protect you from yourself.

With every window open wide, I saw the sunlight blind your face
And it shows all the pain you've kept inside.
When did you lose your faith?
When did you stop believing?

How could you run from me?
How could you stop believing that I don't know you?

When you're lost, all alone, so confused and scared.
You're not the only one who ever feels like that.
Who ever feels like that.
It's no more or no less than what we had, but you're the only one who ever feels like that.
