

The feeling comes to me in waves
The darkest seas I've ever known
Mine is an odyssey of grace
Mine is a story headed home

I tie myself up to the mast
Give up the semblance of control
The sirens sing, but I let them pass
Cause only you could free my soul

Only you could free my soul, yeah
Only you could free my soul, yeah

Set these broken bones to cast
Stitch my wounds with holy sutures
Every saint has got a past, yeah
But every sinners got a future

And only you could free my soul, yeah
Only you could free my soul, yeah

Show me the freedom from these chains
Show me a battlefield that's safe
That world is still a world away
But you are my liberty

Free my soul, free my soul
And let liberty flow
Like a flood let it grow
And I'll let the past go

I'll come running back home
And I'll make it, I know
Oh my love, oh my hope
Only you could free my soul

Free my soul
Come on and free my soul
Only you could free my soul

I tie myself up to the mast,
I tie myself up to the mast and let it go
Yeah, yeah
Only you could free my soul
