Lady Venom

Swollen Members

Ever heard of Vertigo? Well ain't no way else to go Prevail knows the faculties, our poison lay you vertical It's only murder for every small animal committed The only difference is I won't admit I did it There's a limit as to how far my posse's willing to bend The dawn of a burgundy autumn blinds the minds of most men Vomiting from the quarantine, praying for the end You can tell by the stench that the venom's setting in On the plane in which you reign, it's classified as "Do or die" But in the realm in which we dwell, its "Puncture necks and multiply" Imagine the madness, the return of the Jew from Nazareth The hunter and the hunted, the colonizing and savages The only challenge is, did they bring enough to dirt to bury us? Be aware, I hunt with the god as a cerabus Where we're going, don't stress, there'll be plenty of time to rest Close the curtains, brace your sternum, this is just a contest

The ultimate experience, I've already felt it Madchild tasting her tounge, his heart melts With the second chance for this demon that she dealt with Few and far between from Beauty and the Beast To a perfect combination, once this passion is unleashed Golden Angel, precious Princess and since This is more than just lust, trust if not now, then soon One love, we'll have our chance to dance on the moon Now the feel the trance of this goddess, vicious vibrations Lapdances, venomous serpents of temptation Awkward balance, scars on my back from her talons An evil evening, drinking blood by the gallons Drenched, venting tension, adrenaline rush Pain stains the carpet when you run into us An effortless task, cold hearts and iron masks Nightmares have been implanted, that you shouldn't try and grasp

Come stand amongst us, just don't ask us who brung us
Just one of them amongst us, come on, you can trust us
We're the league that serves the justice, we're the confident ones
Come run amongst us and conquer someone
Some come to seek honor
Some seek to reek havoc
Either you do or don't have it
If we speak, it's tragic

When the sun rises, are you surprised that I'm a beast?

Leatherface withers, cracks, and starts to crease

Feel your heart rate decrease, the unveiling of the vain

White widow, crystal palace, champagne, who calls them strange?

And down here it's the strangest thing

Flaming skies start to fall

My jaws of life, the cause of death, my breath swing a wrecking ball

This is your beckoning call

While we checkin you all,

All praise the Circuit Breaker that circulates through your walls

And appalls all who call

I brawl, maul, and maim

WE BLESS AND DESTROY WITH STRENGTH STILL OUT OF RANGE
