

Deadpan

Sworn In

I can't tell what's right from wrong
Maybe I've been emotionless all along
Mouth full of blood
What have I done?
Disgusted with myself
Delighted with none
Can you outrun the shadow I cast?
You better pray that you can run fucking fast
The sun's gone down and you're left for dead
Get out of my head
I'm better off dead
You may have tricked them but you haven't tricked me
Pull off that mother fucking mask you seem to wear so easily
Fuck you and fuck the whole entire human race
When I am through with you
The world will see your fucking true face
I can't close my eyes, can't close my eyes
All I see is all I despise
And I cried to deaf ears
You were all that I feared but now I can't feel
I can't close my fucking eyes
I can't be alive
I can't close my fucking eyes
And I sure as hell can't be fucking alive
Mouth full of blood
What have I done?
Disgusted with myself
Delighted with none
