

Hypocrisy

Sworn In

This is hypocrisy
Practice what you preach
Practice what you preach

This is hypocrisy
Practice what you preach
Practice what you preach

Fuck you
You're meaningless to me
You're everything
You told me never to be

Sick and twisted, fucked up and ruthless
Deranged at worst and at very best useless

Save it for hell's gate
Save it for the fucking treason parade
Save it for hell's gate
Save it for the fucking treason parade

I watched my world burn
I watched my world burn
I watched my world burn
I watched my world burn
I watched my world burn
As you watched with a grin
From the point of no return
Once again, yeah, once again
This sympathy symphony never seems to end

No trust, no, there's no fucking trust
All I've learned is fucked I'll never adjust
Nothing you'll ever do will make this just Disgust, disgust, disgust,

Keep burning, ashes to dust
There never was any trust
Laid to rest, dead in the mind
Completely blind, completely blind

Fuel the fire, burn to the ground
And don't you even dare try to fucking turn this around
'cause nothing's left but this silent grin,
You will never win

I watched my world burn
As you watched with a grin
From the point of no return
Once again, yeah, once again
This sympathy symphony never seems to end

Not like you said
You were not just friends
