

I Don't Really Love You

Sworn In

Just my luck
Spit in my face because I gave a fuck
Love is dead

I'll melt with you
Together in our heads
I don't care how long I've been dead
Dressed in all black
Late for my funeral
Don't got my soul back
That's only natural

I don't
I don't
I don't really love you
No, I don't really love you
And I don't care

Love is dead, love is dead
Put this gun to your head
Let's paint the world our own shade of red

It doesn't matter
Nothing feels fine
I feel nothing all the fucking time
You've made a stage in my head
That I'll replace with lead
I'm screaming love is dead, love is dead, love is dead

Love is dead

I never
I never said this would be alright
I never
I never said this love would burn bright
