

Battle Of Olympus

Syd Matters

Way back in the warmth of '87
We don't fear a black night
As we live in the heaven
Close all the windows
Put the TV on
As the sun goes down

I swear I saw a fairy in the back of your garden
But it was nothing at all for you to remember

Don't believe my eyes
Memories turn to lies
When they're changing sides

Cannot find the keys of my memory box
Tell the time to stop
Dry my teardrops

Where have you been?
I forgot what I've seen
Even in my dreams

Way back in the warmth of '87
We don't fear a black night
As we live in the heaven
Close all the windows
Put the TV on
As the sun goes down

I swear, I swear
I swear I saw a fairy in the back of your garden
But it was nothing at all for you to remember

Where have you been?
I forgot what I've seen
When I was a teen
