

Guitars Of The Heart (Happy)

Syleena Johnson

I'm so happy that I've found someone to love
I'm so happy that I've found someone I can trust
It's like a dream that I never want to wake from I'm so caught up with you I swear you're all that I think of How you love me, how you deal with my insanities Sometimes I just can't believe that I'm finally where I need to be
And...

I'm so happy that I've found someone to love
I'm so happy that I've found someone I can trust
I'm so happy 'cause I know that you really love me too
And I smile every day 'cause my heart overflows with you

You're the first and the last thought of my day
You're a constant presence in my mind in my ocean you're the wa ves
In my sand you're the grain
You wash away my pain
You're the friend I never had You're the strength of my reality

I'm so happy that I've found someone to love
I'm so happy that I've found someone I can trust
I'm so happy 'cause I know that you really love me too
And I smile every day 'cause my heart overflows with you

It's been so hard for me to finally find you
But now that you're in my heart
My mind is free, my soul is free

I'm so happy that I've found someone to love
I'm so happy that I've found someone I can trust
I'm so happy 'cause I know that you really love me too
And I smile every day 'cause my heart overflows with you
