

Hungry Heart

Sylver

I screwed up many times
Every little chance
Slipped through my
Hopeful hands

I wrote a thousand lines
A loving and care
Thoughts I
Never seemed to share

I don't know what to say
Can anybody take away
My hungry heart
Hungry heart

I used to contemplate
To swallow my pride
Open up, let
Love decide

I was just too afraid
Scared for more
So many shadows
I ignored

I don't know what to say
Can anybody take away
My hungry heart
Hungry heart

Underneath our sheets of shame
No matter how close you came
You were so far from my world
I think it's time that I learned

Exactly what to say
Can anybody take away
My hungry heart
Hungry heart

I don't know what to say
Can anybody take away
My hungry heart
Hungry heart

Hungry heart
Hungry heart
Hungry heart
Hungry heart

Hungry heart
Hungry heart
Hungry heart
Hungry heart
