

Mystery Of Tomorrow

Sylver

You smile at me as a painting with no colour
You look at me as a star without a shine
You care for me but you don't hear what I'm saying
I wanna know what you really feel inside

You dance with me but you don't feel my rhythm
You talk with me but you're always three steps ahead
You talk to me but I don't hear what you're saying
I wanna know what you really feel inside

If I could solve the mystery of tomorrow
If I could make some changes in your heart
If I could see the shadows of the future
I wouldn't be alone and torn apart
