

You And I

Sylver

Living lonely in the twilight
Feeling sad and feeling small
Urging for an unseen love
Than you came and change it all

Turning darkness into sunshine
Turning nightttime into day
You released my locked emotions
You kissed my tears away

Chorus:

You and I, you and I
We can trust each other
You and I, you and I
There'll never be another
I love you even more
Than I did before
You and I'll be alright
I love you even more
Than I did before
You and I, you and I

Get a drift in your blue eyes
Sweet surrender in your arms
Let the feeling grow
Let our love well overflow

Turning aching into pleasure
Turning grief into delight
You seduced me with your laughter
You led me to the light

Chorus repeat

I love you even more
Than I did before
You and I'll be alright
I love you even more
Than I did before
You and I, you and I

Chorus repeat

You and I
