

Once we sailed together once we had a dream the wind was gently touching our faces safe in you arms... your rainbow colored eyes sunshine on you hair we talked to the night, the sadness in you eyes i knew you had to go...

Alayna, the mystery
you were mine until the day was gone
i thought you were meant to be forever Alayna, our souls were light as i held you in my arms so tight
i saw god reflecting into you eyes,
My Angel...

Sometimes i wake in the night screaming out your name the call of your heart won't let me be, your voice echoes in my heart...

i thought you were meant to be forever
i saw god reflecting into you eyes,
My Angel...

Watching the stars above, the pond and the oak, the grass... we made a promise, love is forever, y never saw you again...
