

The Serpent's Kiss

Symphony X

Covenant of pure corruption sink my teeth deep into you Solemn oath of sheer destruction Nightmare, through and through

In that hour - I'll devour Hope is swallowed up in Pain taste the venom - feel the power coursing through my veins

I'm corruption
I'm destruction, through and through

Trust in me... for I will set you free with a Serpent's Kiss
with a Serpent's Kiss

Be my lights and I won't stray - make me beg; make me pray
Tell me when to laugh or cry - when to live and when to die

Forgotten and betrayed Rotting and decayed left to wither - without a voice left to slither - without a choice

[solo]

Crucifier - spitting fire say your little empty prayers This empire - growing higher
To this spite I swear

Sharp tongue severs - like a razor swimming in a sea of rage Vindicators - masqueraders all the world's my stage

I devour
I empower - god of pain

with a Serpent's Kiss
How could it come to this?
with a Serpent's Kiss
