Somewhere In Between

Systematic

Pulls me under Held me over Sets the tones to lose

A taste of anger No remainder Of the things we'd choose

Crumpled over
My composer
Just a skeleton

It turns me inward
But it figures
Forever's a dirty word.

Emotions wear my sleeve This might be the last...

One or two ease the pain It's nothing that we talk about.

No recollection
Of complexion
Could not place his face

I plead redemption Or collection Put me into place.

One or two ease the pain It's nothing that we talk about.

Ease the pain.

Emotions wear my sleeve This might be the last...

One or two ease the pain It's nothing that we talk about.

This might be the last...
