

Mover

T.Love

I can't listen to all your lies
I can't find myself in your disguise
I can't talk to you by telephone
I don't want to see you in my home

Babe i think it's time
To change your mind, babe

It's just enough i'd like to give it up
It brings me down it's just too hard my love
You'd like to rule You'd like to by my Jesus
It's not for me It's not for me my little one

Babe i think it's time
To change your mind, babe

I know you you thought you've got me now
I know you want to by my detiny
I'm sorry honey but you are wrong
'cause I'm a mover and I gotta go

Babe i think it's time
To change your mind, babe
