

Lean Woman Blues

T. Rex

Oh lean love
All you give to me is lean love
I'm like a beggar in the sand
With the sky in his hand and I'm blue

Oh black day
All you give to me are your wild ways
Oh you're the love of my life
And then you gorge me with a knife and I'm blue
That's untrue!

Lightening
Oh the heavy world is frightening
I'm talking to you
I'm like a child in the sand
On the beach of the land of you
I'm your friend, lend me your hand

Oh lean love
All you give to me is your lean love
I'm like a beggar in the sand
With the sky in his hand and I'm blue

Yes, I really love you
Yeah!
