

Flowers By The Door

T.S.O.L.

All my life has been a dream
An endless nightmare it seems
Tonight's the night, yes this is the end
You've heard it before, this is what I said

I think about gone yesterdays
All the things that people would say
Tonight's the night, I'm gonna find the truth
Tonight's the night. goodbye to you

Because I can't take it anymore
No, I can't make it anymore
Don't say nothing cause baby there ain't no more
Just leave your flowers by the door

You can't see me now, cause I'm in the day
It's all over, no one left to pay
I'm finally happy with no yesterday
I'm still alive, but I'm in the grave.
