

Renounce

T.S.O.L.

I've never seen you look so lonely
Yeah you're loaded but I don't care
Too much sleeping's never been for me
You knock me out when you're down there

Feeling nothing and I'm so hung about
Feeling nothing and I won't let you go

Christine you don't even care
Christine you don't even care
Christine you don't even care
Christine you don't even care

Coming to me now you've been sparkling
It's past eleven and no one's here
Too much living's never been for me
I go to sleep when you're down there

Feeling nothing and I'm so hung about
Feeling nothing and I won't let you go

Feeling nothing and I'm so hung about
Knowing nothing's ever gonna be the same

Christine you don't even care
Christine you don't even care
Christine you don't even care
Christine you don't even care
