Where r u now?
Where r u now, baby?
Where r u now?
Where r u now, yeah?

It's three o'clock in the morning
I realize I'm all alone
We never thought you would leave us
But it ain't no use now you're gone
Used to sit and wonder
If I could make it on my own

Where r u now?
Where r u now?
Where r u now baby?
Where r u now?
Where r u now yeah

Where r u now?
Where r u now baby?
Where r u now?
Where r u now baby?

It's funny now that I'm older
And looking back on yesterday
I see my life as a blessing
On the day you came my way
Baby, I will love you
All of my life till my dying day

Where r u now'?
Where r u now baby
Where r u now
Where r u now baby

Aah, oh yeah
Hmm, yeah
Hey, hey, yeah

I tried, I tried but I couldn't live a lie
Didn't know what I had till it walked on by
Days in the past, life was a blast
Go to fast and you wind up last

Rising sun could've been anyone
But I lost my life with the shot of a gun
I tried, I tried but I couldn't say goodbye
Didn't know what I had right before my eyes

So I see you my dear child, where r u now?

Dub dub, pa da, dub dub, pa dada, doodoo

Where r u now?

Where r u now, baby?
Where r u now?
Where r u now, yeah?
Where r u now?

Where r u now, baby?
Where r u now?
Where r u now, baby?
