Tad Morose

Close you eyes, clear your mind
Embrace the darkness, let go of time

Listen to the voice of mine
See the world through the eyes of a blind

All is silent, the dark is total
A tranquil rest for your mind

Listen to the voice of mine
It's time to take you back in time

Keep searching
Search deep within yourself - "Just follow"
Just follow the voice of your conscience -
It will guide you right

Find the root, to all that is evil
To all your sins, the mistakes, vicious deeds

Listen to the voice of mine
Relive your sins and the dread of your crimes

Keep searching
Search deep within yourself - "Just follow"
Just follow the voice of your conscience -
It will guide you right

Listen to the voice of mine
Hell awaits!
