Everything returns again Both the laughter and the rain

She is living somewhere for a while Still I ask her in my lonely way to stay

Desiree Desiree Now she's Leaving

Desiree you know How it hurts me Living alone through all the years Nothing can hold the tears in me

Everything remains the same
Yet she answers not her name
Still If I could
Look beyond these skies
Standing here again before my eyes I'd see

Desiree Desiree Now she's Leaving

Desiree you know
How it hurts me
Where do I run to
Is it real
Nothing but pain I feel for real

Desiree you know How it hurts me

Living alone through all the years Nothing can hold the tears in me

Desiree
