

Holding Out For Grace

Tait

I believe
I believe in who you are
And when you speak
I hear you deep inside my heart
It's more of you I want
So take me back to the start
Show me the bigger part

I know there's so much more to life
So won't you open up my eyes

I want to see
And I, I'm falling on my face
I'm holding out for Grace, send Your spirit down
Illuminate this place, my Lord
My Love, My peace, without You I'm incomplete

And in my time of need
I know You're watching over me
And I can't wait to lose myself in Your embrace
You're my hiding place

I know there's so much more to life
So won't You meet me here tonight

I want to see
And I, I'm falling on my face
I'm holding out for Grace, send Your Spirit down
Illuminate this place, let Your kingdom come, heal the broken ones
Father shine Your light on Your daughters and Your sons

In my mind, there's a battle going on and on for my life
But this time I'm gonna give You everything I have inside

God our God how beautiful
God our God how beautiful You are
God our God You're beautiful so beautiful
