

Looking For You

Tait

Wide awake, chasing sleep
Life's so bittersweet
Like a dream, remembering
When I could talk to you
We were safe in a world of harm
Before I knew it our love was gone
I miss you so much

I'm looking for you
Cause you're all that's true to me
You make me smile

I had to fall, and lose it all
But that's all right with me
You pushed aside my selfish pride
You opened up my eyes
When I was lost you came to me
You crossed the oceans to set me free
I need you so much

Looking for you
Cause you're all that's true to me
You make me smile

You, you're all I ever needed
I know, I know
Only you, you're all I ever wanted
I know, I know
You, you're more than a dream
Yeah you're everything
My own symphony
You're my destiny

I'm looking for you
Cause you're all that's true to me
You make me smile

I'm Looking for you
I sing this for you
Cause nothing's as true
You make me smile
So I smile, yeah I smile
Every time I think of you
I smile, I do
Oh every time I think of you

I'm looking for you
Cause you are my soul's desire
I'm searching for you
Yes you are my soul's desire
I'm looking for you
Cause you are my soul's desire

I'm all right, I'm okay, it's for sure
Only when I'm next to you
You are my soul's desire

Only cause I'm next to you

My soul's desire
My my my soul's desire
Oh yeah, oh yeah
You are, you are
