

Broken

Taj Jackson

I can say I erased you from my mind and never think of you
I'd forget about the friends we made if that's what I need to do
I can act like the only way that you exist is in a dream
It's the only way out of my reality

I can change the channel every time our favorite show comes on
And get mad at the radio cause they just played your favorite song
I can find another girl and try to love you out my life
But it just gets harder every time I try

Oh, that's why I'm broken
And it's hurting me girl, cause you just left me broken
And because of you I don't know if I can love again
But I won't believe that this is the end
We'll be together once again
Cause girl, I'm broken

I can take the pictures that we took
And throw them all away
Every letter that you wrote girl, I wanna forget what you had to say
Cause I'll never understand what you did to me on that day
That's the only part I wish I can replace

Can't you see I'm broken
And it's hurting me girl, cause you just left me broken
And because of you, I don't know if I can love again
But I won't believe that this is the end
We'll be together once again
Cause girl I'm broken

Oh if I had a choice, baby you'd still be right here with me
And if you gave me your voice, I would tell you I don't want you to leave

(Broken)

Don't you know I'm broken
And it's hurting me girl
Cause you just left me broken
And because of you I don't know if I can love again
But I won't believe that this is the end
(This is not the end no)
We'll be together once again
Cause girl I'm broken
(I'm broken)
And it's hurting me girl cause you just left me broken
And because of you I don't know if I can love again
But I won't believe that this is the end
We'll be together once again
And love can make it mend
Because girl I'm broken
