

Never Let You Go

Taj Mahal

I like the stars in the Hawaiian sky
Sweet honey, you know you shine
There's none brighter, baby, in my eyes
I'm so happy that you're mine oh mine
Your smile is my sunny day
Chasin' all my many troubles away
The way you kiss so tenderly
Don't you know you make my life complete?
And when I'm far away in some old distant land
I know I can hold on 'cause it won't be too long
'Til I'm back in your arms.

And oh,
Baby, when you're close to me,
Honey, what you do to me
I'll never let you go

And oh,
Baby, when it's late at night,
You know I'm gonna hold you tight.
I'll never let you go.

And oh,
Baby, when you're close to me,
Honey, what you do to me
I'll never let you go.

And oh,
Baby, when it's late at night,
You know I'm gonna love you right.
I'll never let you go.

Sugar, when I'm one my fishing boat
You're the star that leads me safely home.
Although honey just don't taste as sweet,
You're my one and only queen bee.
'Cause your smile is my sunny day.
Chasin' my many troubles away.
Baby, with you standing by my side,
I'm gonna be happy 'til the end of time.
It only takes one glance into those pretty eyes.
I know it can warp the mind.
You and me, we'll be just fine.
With your hand in mine.

And oh,
Baby, when you're close to me,
Honey, what you do to me
I'll never let you go

And oh,
Baby, when it's late at night,
You know I'm gonna hold you tight.
I'll never let you go.

And oh,
Baby, when you're close to me,

Honey, what you do to me
I'll never let you go.

And ooh,
Baby, when it's late at night,
You know I'm gonna love you right.
I'll never let you go.

Ooh,
Baby, when you're close to me,
Honey, what you do to me
I'll never let you go

And oh,
Baby, when it's late at night,
You know I'm gonna hold you tight.
I'll never let you go.

And oh,
Baby, when you're close to me,
Honey, what you do to me
I'll never let you go

And oh,
Baby, when it's late at night,
You know I'm gonna hold you tight.
I'll never let you go.
