

Escape Artist

Take Cover

So wake up.
You're not the only one,
looking for yourself, looking for yourself.

Girl you know I gotta run.
I hate to leave this way,
but you know that I am trying, I am trying.

I'm an Escape Artist and I can't get away from it.
(Does it hurt when I say it doesn't?)
I'm an Escape Artist and I can't get away from it.
(No one, no one)
No one can catch me.

She always said that I was the one she could count on.
(She can count on me)
But my heads no good with numbers and unreliable.
So I run, run from the ways that I used to know.
(Does it hurt when I say it doesn't)
