Flowerbed

Darling please forgive me I was sitting on the fence I was slowly going out of head I did not hear a word that you said I was enjoying myself sleeping in your flowerbed

If I could take your blows, If I could get pass go, If I could find a way of fixing the things that I broke Then I would, if I could And I might understand now I ended outta mind And I might understand now I ended outta mind

But the truth is hard to find When it's playing tricks with your mind Darling please forgive me I was hanging with my friends I was slowly getting outta my head I did not hear a word that you said I was enjoying myself sleeping in your flowerbed I was enjoying myself sleeping in your flowerbed

Take That
