

Standing on a ledge, looking down
Somebody shouting 'don't jump, don't hit the ground'
Standing here closer to the moon
Get my halo ready
Don't worry, I'll be there soon

Somewhere up ahead I hear it coming
Like a bullet to the brain
Somewhere in the crowd I feel the loving
Will we ever be the same?

I'm a superstar
I'm a superstar
I'm a superstar
It's gonna be a long way down

Lying on train track, ooh, there's a train coming
Faster than a hurricane
Don't mind me, look away, I'm the stranger
No one knew that I could save the day

Put me on a list, my name and number
Tell them that I've come so far
Gonna be as loud as rain and thunder
And now I'm ready for the stars

I'm a superstar
I'm a superstar
I'm a superstar
It's gonna be a long way down

Can you see me right now?
Can you hear me right now?
Can you see me right now?
Gonna have my fifteen minutes of fame
Gonna have so much fun playing the game
'Cause I'm a superstar
I'm a superstar
Gonna sign my name on a photograph
All this champagne life, oh, it ain't so bad
'Cause I'm a superstar
Yeah, I'm a superstar

(Superstar)
(Superstar)
'Cause I'm a superstar
(It's gonna be a long way down)
Gonna have my fifteen minutes of fame
Gonna have so much fun playing the game
'Cause I'm a superstar
It's gonna be a long way down
