

Rest In Peace: Jane Doe

Take The Crown

My mouth is shut and you are
You are so desperately willing
It's not your fault
It's getting late and I lost the feeling

Stop acting like you're not enough
You've lost your touch
And I'm sorry that I lost it

It's not like I'm not listening
It's just that you don't understand
It's not me it's the medicine

You love my voice but you hate
You hate the words that I'm saying
It means something more
Get on your knees better start your praying
With my sharp tongue and my stained glass eyes
I'll make it hard to see inside
But I won't let you in, won't let you in now

Stop acting like you're not enough
You've lost your touch
And I'm sorry that I lost it

It's not like I'm not listening
It's just that you don't understand
It's not me it's the medicine

I know I said it and you won't forget it
I know I said we won't regret this ever
You can't have me forever
