

Somewhere Waiting

Take The Crown

Eyes are closed but he's still awake
His last breath is yours to take
Favorite picture on the wall
Don't lose hope

They said you were gone
But I know better you'll be waiting
You'll be somewhere waiting

When you think you've lost it all
Time will tell it's story

Hands are trembling and he's trying to speak
He sits up and he says to me
When I leave it won't all be done
Just carry on

They said you were gone
But I know better you'll be waiting
You'll be somewhere waiting

When you think you've lost it all
Time will tell it's story

I won't forget the life you showed me
I won't forget the life