

Fire Away

Takida

Struggle with her lovers in my mind Try to get her eyes on me Hard to get some ease when you're around Take some time to look into the fire am I too blind to see The girl is dancing lovely Lie, cry, hide again

I want her Just fire away I'm into her game and that's zen I have waited a long, long time Now fire away

Fire away Fire away

Touching every line on her face Pretending it's all for me The smile is feeding sins and I fight every breath

I want her Just fire away I'm into her game And that's zen I have
waited a long, long time Now fire away

I have waited a long, long time Now fire away (repeat x 2)

I want her Just fire away I'm into her game And that's zen I want her Just fire away I'm into her game Again (repeat x 2)
