

Hours

Takida

We are the young ones!

Always counting on the other side, There's no need for us holding the line, It feels stronger now, we're alive, And It's time for us to get on the ride, Pass It forward to the weary kind, Send a message, Give them a sign, This is better for you and it's better for us, You have to listen now,

We are the young ones... We are the young ones!

Make a statement for another time, Were the heroes just longing to find, Understanding eyes, Give them hell if there's no reason to cry, Show some heart, be a leader in life, Take part in the greatest fight, We are falling in love but we're not getting hurt,

You have to listen now!

We are the young ones... We are the young ones!

Hours passing by, Wondering why we're still alive, Desperation calls, Waiting for the night,

Hours passing by, Wondering why we're still alive, Desperation calls, Straight into the night,

Waiting for the night,

Waiting for the night,

We are the young ones!

Hours passing by, Wondering why we're still alive, Desperation calls, Waiting for the night,

Hours passing by, Wondering why we're still alive, Desperation calls, Straight into the night,
