

Purgatory (live And Let Die)

Takida

It's all I can say
It's all I can do
Cause you ruin all our lives
You brought fear and stains
Here is no place for you
But cowards last somehow
It's all you can say
It's all you can do
Hatred, wrath, pain, listen
I'm ending you tonight
I can't understand a single word
Coming out from your mouth
But the purgatory awaits
And it makes me feel alive
Will you put up an honest fight
Just you and me, decide
You're hanging on by a thread
I have a call, live and let die
Die
The stars disappear
The moonlight is gone
Sunshine evolves to rain
It's my turn to scare
Want you frozen to the bone
Rage, crash, fall down, no lifeline
I'm ending this tonight
I can't understand a single word
Coming out from your mouth
But the purgatory awaits
And it makes me feel alive
Will you put up an honest fight
Just you and me, decide
You're hanging on by a thread
I have a call, live and let
Die
Won't you die
O-oh
O-oh
O-oh
O-oh
I can't understand a single word
Coming out from your mouth
But the purgatory awaits
And it makes me feel alive
Will you put up an honest fight
I have a call, live and let die
O-oh
Live and let die
O-oh
Live and let die
O-oh
Live and let die
O-oh
Live and let die
O-oh

O-oh

O-oh

O-oh

Live and let die
