Yeah you feel like you're minded Yeah you feel that in your head Take the blood from the rare ones It's not you it's them that is

Always prevent that no one be heard

Your time will not survive Your feelings are long gone

Take some time from the children Who's their teacher now instead? Will you go there and feed them You can not take the pain away

Always prevent that no one be heard Yeah!

Your time will not survive Your feelings are alone

It's always been a reminder,
When you shot her apart but she's still coming back
alive
Can you hear, can you feel her,
When she's calling for you and your inside begin to die

It's always been a reminder,
When you shot her apart but she's still coming back
Can you hear, can you feel her,

It's always been a reminder,
When you shot her apart but she's still coming back
Can you hear, can you feel her,
When she's calling for you and your inside begin to die

When she's calling for you and your inside begin to die
