

Walk On By

Takida

Tell the rabble you wont give in, Tell them safe we all have sins,
Tell them fall back the weak ones in the ring,

And even though Im scared but true, I will not give the pleasure to you,
I will break you by ingnoring all the hate,

Bullies are lonely, youre falling down

Walking on by, Leave them all behind, Tell it to them straight,
You have to give up the hate, Walking on by, No one has to hide,
Depending on the faith, You know its never too late

No more lost for the words, Nothing you say will hurt, It is time to see them,
Im stronger than you ever were,

Bullies are lonely, youre falling down

Walking on by, Leave them all behind, Tell it to them straight,
You have to give up the hate, Walking on by, No one has to hide,
Depending on the faith, Yeah, its never too late,

Darker days are over, Give up the hate, Angers getting you nowhere,

You know its never too late!

Walking on by, Leave them all behind, Tell it to them straight,
You have to give up the hate, Walking on by, No one has to hide,
Depending on the faith, You know its never too late!
