

Sink Into Me

Taking Back Sunday

Hey Hey Hey Hey Hey Hey!

Oh, tell me that you're better
And you'd rather just forget that things have got so far,
Yeah, tell me that you're better
And you'd rather just forget that things have gone too far.

You're all I see, sink into me.
Sharpen your teeth, sink into me.
Sink into me,
Sink in, sink in.

Well I'd like to see our roles reversed,
To watch you hang on every word,
I'd like to see you have your way.

I keep my grammar well rehearsed,
Correct each stutter, every slur,
Come on and have your way with me.

Now, tell me that you're better
And you'd rather just forget that things have got so far,
You tell me that you're better
And you'd rather just forget that things have gone too far.

Hey Hey Hey Hey Hey Hey!
Hey Hey Hey Hey Hey Hey!

You're all I see, sink into me.
Sharpen your teeth, sink into me.
Sink into me,
Sink in, sink in.

Well I'd like to see our roles reversed,
To watch you hang on every word,
I'd like to see you have your way.

I keep my grammar well rehearsed,
Correct each stutter, every slur,
Come on and have your way with me.
Come on and have your way with me.

I'd like to be in all the kind,
(Hey Hey Hey Hey Hey Hey!)
Who could sing, but don't because you're shy,
That way I'd live inside your throat,
And hang from every word you spoke.

Hey!
Hey Hey Hey Hey Hey Hey!
Hey Hey Hey Hey Hey Hey!

You're all I see, sink into me.
Sharpen your teeth, sink into me.
Sink into me,
Sink in, sink in.

I'd love to see you have your way,
Come on, have your way with me.
(And hang from every word you spoke)

I'd love to see you have your way,
(Correct each stutter, every slur)
Come on, have your way with me.
Sink into me.
