

Angel-devil

Talisman

Mother never told me
That the monsters weren't real
Sister never warned me 'bout your type
But i'm not scared of u
Just because you're different from all the rest
I know just what 2 do
With an ogre in a dress

Angel, u can't hide the little devil inside,
Angel, uve lost your pride 2 the devil inside,
Angel, u can't lose with the devil by your side,
Angel, u can't choose between the devil in your mind
Father says he remembers meeting 1 of your kind
Brother says with shame he went down on u
Y don't u see the shame of the ways u wanna bring em down,
This so called fantasy, shatters everyone, everything around
