

Break It Down

Talisman

It's all inconceivable, it's hard 2 believe
How u could just turn it around
U simply deserve the blame, but how can u live with yourself
As I drown

Hear me speak your fate
I'll break it down
It's time 2 set u straight
& Break it down again

These gates of hell u call love, I'm finally free
I've taken the passage 2 freedom
I don't want 2 complicate, I just want u 2 understand
All's I see's, oh-whoa
