

Outta My Way

Talisman

U picked a bad, bad day 2 get under my skin
I did not come here 2 play, so don't u even begin
Don't push your luck, I'm bout 2 snap,
Watch your back when I get started
I'm a lit short fuse, on the loose, I'm cruel & stonehearted

Look at my face, do you really safe
Look at my eyes, I'm a paralyze
Outta my way, best 2 keep your distance
Outta my way, I'm a like a time bomb bout 2 explode

Don't u cross my path, it's a losing proposition
There's a riot in my head, a warhead disposition
Any given day of the week, I'm a freak aint no doubt about it
If u aint got a smile or some grain, u'd better hit it

Look at my face, do you really feel safe
Look at my eyes, I'm a paralyze
Outta my way, best 2 keep your distance
Outta my way, like a psycho filled with vengeance
Outta my way, I'm a like a time bomb bout 2 explode

U seem 2 push my button at just the right moment
It's like you're squeezin a trigger aimed at my silence
Well, I've news 4 u, I got your ticket I got your number
U'd better have the instinct 2 hide from my thunder
