Tears In The Sky

Talisman

World is turnin' but society's standing still Vows of Eden have burned thru compassions' will

Now we're only human or so they say Just another deformed analogy Further from what we all thought was near Now the clouds r cryin'

Tears in the sky r fallin' down again No sun 2morrow Tears from the sky r rainin' We're near the end

Peace, love & joy, expressions oblivious Talk is cheap in the words that r dangerous

Now we're dumb and blind & so misunderstood Ignorance dims our, our dare 2 recover No more faith in life, no more surprise If we never ever cease the cryin'

Tears in the sky r fallin' down again No sun 2morrow Tears from the sky r rainin' We're near the end

Now we're only human or so they say Just another deformed analogy Further from what we all thought was near Now the clouds r cryin'

Can you hear the cryin'?

Tears in the sky r fallin' down again No sun 2morrow Tears from the sky r rainin' We're near the end

Tears in the sky r fallin' down again Lost in the sorrow Tears from the sky r rainin' We're near the end

Fallin', fallin' down
Tears r fallin'...
