

Tomorrow Started

Talk Talk

Don't look back until you try
A line so openly a lie
Outside of you
It's just tomorrow starting

I've said I'm wrong
When I've been right
I've seen times
When I've been sure, but still I find
I'm just the first that you take
Are there reasons everybody pays?

They never seem to be any use
They never seem to be any use
It's just tomorrow starting

Don't look back until you've tried
With time you'll endlessly arrive
Outside of use
With just tomorrow starting

See my eyes, tell me I'm not lying
I'm just the first that you take
Are there reasons everybody pays?

They never seem to be any use
They never seem to be any use
It's just tomorrow starting

See my eyes, tell me I'm not lying
I'm just the first that you take
Are there reasons everybody pays?

They never seem to be any use
They never seem to be any use
They never seem to be any use
It's just tomorrow starting
