

Don't Cry

Tamar Braxton

Why did I fall for you? And why am I still missing you?
Why did I let you get close to me?
You were never there for me, your kisses never meant for me
I've been alone since you walked in my life
And how was I supposed to know that you would leave me in the c old
I never want to hear you say to me again

"Don't cry, I am by your side"
You know that you've lied, words that don't mean a thing
"Baby, don't cry", I've heard a thousand times
With all your other lies, so this time don't tell me not to cry

I don't think you know true love, and I don't think you want tr ue love
You just didn't wanna be alone
You just wanted things your way, I don't think you even knew ba be
I can't believe I gave my heart to you
And how was I supposed to know that you would leave me in the c old

I never want to hear you say to me again

How am I supposed to live alone?
And how am I supposed to face this world on my own?
I can't believe that you hurt me, don't wanna hear that your so rry
I never wanna hear these words from you

"Baby, don't cry, I am by your side"
You know that you've lied, words that don't mean a thing
"Baby, don't cry", I've heard a thousand times
With all your other lies, so this time don't tell me not to cry

I don't want, I don't wanna cry
Words that don't mean a thing...
