

I'm Getting There

Tammy Cochran

I put on my shades
And walked out the door today
The sunshine, bird sing
Yes I'm alive again

I'm feeling fearless, growing stronger
Not letting your memory linger any longer
I'm just a step away from gettin' over you
I swear
I'm gettin' there

Time slipped right by
Too many tears I've cried
Wasted, depressed
Glad I've got that off my chest now

Took a small step
Took a deep breath
Told myself there's more to life not less
Didn't give up
Didn't give in
This is where the heartache finally ends

I'm gettin there (I'm gettin there)
