

Wanted

Tammy Cochran

Sometimes I get to thinking
I've been aiming too high
Could be, but I know what happens
When I lower my sights
Love for the moment no longer appeals
I want to know it feels to be

Wanted
For just what I am
Not one single ulterior motive in mind
Just wanted
Completely, unselfishly, one hundred percent all the time

There's one
I know him when I see him
And there was a time
I'd be makin' his kind of trouble temporarily mine
I guess my heart's growin' up
All that it wants is to love and be

Wanted
For just what I am
Not one single ulterior motive in mind
Just wanted
Completely, unselfishly, one hundred percent all the time

I won't stop
'Til I get it I'm undaunted
It seems like a lot, but it's not
I just want to be

Wanted
For just what I am
Not one single ulterior motive in mind
Just wanted
Completely, unselfishly, one hundred percent all the time

Wanted
Just wanted
I want to be wanted
