

I See You Can't Take It

Tampa Red

I been down and I ain't through
I see you can't take it
Tryin' to love and baby, you
I see you can't take it

I can tell at a glance
By the way you kiss and then
I'd be silly to take a chance
On breakin' my plans in two

I'd rather have no gal at all
I see you can't take it
If I trust my heart to you
I know you will break it

I can tell by your eyes
You's the devil in disguise
Good luck, goodbye
I see you can't take it

Yeah, yeah, get it

I'd rather have no gal at all
I see you can't take it
If I trust my heart to you
I know you will break it

I can tell by your eyes
You's the devil in disguise
Good luck, goodbye
I see you can't take it.

Yea, yeah
